11th January 2012

Dear

CWO Conference and AGM 2012 – Friday 2nd March 2012, London

Our annual conference usually takes place in November, but, as you may have noticed, we have moved it to coincide with our AGM this year. The national executive felt that this would help reduce travel costs for our members and may also bring better weather. We can but hope!

The theme of this year's conference is Inspiring Women and we will have a number of top speakers and sessions for you to get involved with.

We are also on schedule to launch an international social action project at our conference that all of our women members will easily be able to get involved with... it may even help free some space in your chest of drawers!

It's been a tough year but we must continue to look ahead politically. Thursday 7th May 2015 seems like a long way off but before we know it, the boundary changes will be finalised next year, candidate selections will start and we'll all be off on the campaign trail once again.

Finding candidates for Westminster and campaigning is only a small part of what the CWO does and if you haven't been to one of our conferences before, I hope you will this year, as you'll find out about our training and policy forums, our work with NGOs and charities, along with how we are helping the Party to capture the women's vote and encouraging women to become involved in the political process.

We need women of all ages and experience to step forward and stand for office at all levels – in public life and within the CWO – so if you would like more information, please visit our website at www.conservativewomen.org.uk. I hope to see you in March.

Yours sincerely

Niki Molnar
Chairman, CWO
